EU-MILL e-newsletter #3

EU-MILL: European Integration through Lifelong Learning, 24-27 February 2014

The Tempus project “EU-MILL: Euro-Mediterranean Integration through Lifelong Learning”, conducted a meeting of the consortium at the University Constantine 1, Algeria, from 24 to 27th February 2014.

The agenda of the meeting consisted of a training for trainers in e-learning which was taught jointly by e-learning experts of the University Constantine 1 and University of Seville, and a seminar on “Credits and Competences” by Prof. Jorge M. Mendes, University Nova de Lisboa, which ended satisfactorily by reaching an agreement in relation to the implementation of a common credit system under the framework of the EU-MILL project.

The activity was attended by representatives of partner universities such as University Nova de Lisboa (Portugal), University Aboubekr Belkaid Tlemcen (Algeria), Lebanese American University (Lebanon), University of Sousse and University of Gabes (Tunisia) as well as representatives of member student associations, AIESEC and ESTIEM, and the Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie - AUF, who were invited to participate in the meeting.

The agenda also comprised workshops related to the WP 1 “Diagnosis of LLL in PC”, WP 10 “Dissemination” and WP 11 “Exploitation of results”, which allowed the consortium to conduct a dialogue which proved very fruitful in relation to the approval of results and strategies of the EU-MILL project.

Steering Committee and Monitoring Committee meetings were also held according to the project planning.
